Mrs. Woodrow Wilson has consented to be patroness for the Halloween ball to be given at the Willard Hotel on the evening of October 30 in connection with the $50,000 drive for the benefit of Trinity Community House.

Through the generosity of Mr. Hight, manager of the Willard, both ballrooms have been loaned for the occasion, and two bands will play for the dancing. Bridge tables to accommodate 200 guests will be installed for those who prefer cards to dancing, and this feature of the entertainment will be in charge of Mrs. Charles B. Howry.

Henderson, Mrs. James C. Pilling and Mrs. F. Chaffey Hill. Mrs. Ballou will also be in charge of the committee on arrangements for the motion picture show, which will be given on Tuesday, October 22, at 5 o'clock in the Knickerbocker Theater for the benefit of Trinity Community House.

Most of the members of the ball committee were among the guests at the luncheon given Thursday at the Willard for the various committees interested in the drive, at which ways and means were discussed. Other prominent society women present were Mrs. Allerton Cushman, Mrs. John M. Biddle, Mrs. Frederick B. Chapin and Mrs. George Martin.

When Dr. Koo returns from Paris, where he has been for some months, both of his children, little Patricia and her brother, Wellington, Jr., just

Sure Way to Regain Robust Bloom of Youth

A smooth, velvety soft skin, with a delicate peach-like bloom, is one of the Creator's most exquisite works. When the first blush of youth is over, this beautiful tint and soft texture are rarely seen. How to preserve them—that's the question. Famous beauty experts almost long have known that the secret of youth was in this direction. It actually gives new surface to the skin, restoring that marvellous girlish color and softness in a remarkable manner. An ounce of this wax, permeable at any temperature, will convert a faded, discolored, freckled or sunken complexion into one of supple radiance in less than two weeks. No special skill is necessary in applying non-oiled wax. It being smeared on at night the cream and washed off in the morning—Ad.

Virginia Lee's Personal Answers To Herald Readers' Questions

Do your Christmas shopping early.

Of course, it sounds odd, coming just now, but I do so want to be the first one to tell you that. Just like Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, it rather hurts me for someone else to say it to me first.

Well, it is true that the stores have already made plans for us to shop early and avoid the rush, for Christmas cards are on display or were a week ago, and I have been told at several shops where I loitered by some attractive "knick knacks," that they would make attractive Christmas gifts, and so they would. I'll tell you about a few of them.

You can give a member of your family a blouse, you know, and this year they are prettier than ever before. There will be some deliciously different ones introduced during National Blouse week, November 10 to 15.

One of cream net had a soft 3-inch frill collar, knife plaited. Just below the elbow a knife-plaited deep cuff was attached, which was banded at the bottom with a casing through which black ribbon ran. Of course, the ribbon tied in a bow at the wrist, just to match one attached at the neck, and it cost something under $5.

Pottery and paintings seem to get more beautiful day by day, too, and there are such lovely rose bowls, vases, candlesticks and even nut dishes in the Rookwood, some with wintry scenes portrayed thereon.
